

Internships available:

Compathos is a non-profit initiative which inspires action, advocacy and global citizenry through purposeful media. Compathos pioneers creative ways to promote positive change while bringing awareness and support to key issues, worthwhile international projects and volunteer opportunities through the arts, film, video, photography, music and journalism.

Our creative community of award winning pros are passionate about creating results-oriented media campaigns that deliver measurable impacts and inspire viewer action. We believe the power of story not only inspires and raises awareness, but helps to multiply financial and volunteer resources to deserving groups, organizations and communities worldwide.

Gain experience with a newly launched NPO, exploring the intersection of media arts, film, social innovation, and the epic adventure of world change.

Volunteer or Intern Positions and Requirements: Remote intern opportunities include:

Online Marketing and Outreach Coordinator: Harness social media technology and grow community around Compathos events, arts, film and partner campaigns. If you have social skills and love to connect via social media this is for you! Must have PR knowledge / social graph –Facebook, Twitter and more.

Contact cause related non profit organizations, international regarding partnerships, projects, volunteer opportunities and to find their interest in potential media projects – “helping organizations and grass roots initiatives tell their story.” Work with Creative Marketing Director to organize and produce materials for events, newsletter and social media outreach.

1. Must be outgoing, have excellent communication skills, heart for others, creative and a general knowledge of how media can play a role in effectively helping orgs, projects and initiatives “tell their story” and /or establishing relationships and partnerships to help organizations utilize Compathos for additional support and exposure. Lists of contacts available.
2. Knowledgeable in outreach / SMM – helping to grow Compathos local and global community. Knowledge of PR / social media marketing - Twitter, Facebook, etc – as well as proficient knowledge of student, global non profit and socially responsible space.
3. Interest in learning about international projects, volunteer opportunities and international initiatives and willingness to work in a small creative team to strategize innovate ways to promote events, causes, partner with corporate sponsors, non-profit partners and media production teams.

Inquiries please contact nick@compathos.com, sharon@compathos.com, cynth@compathos.com